Well Done Aaron Roche!

By Denyale Juffs-King, 14 June 2017

Our own local sports star.

Congratulations!

Aaron Roche, of Mango Hill, at Redcliffe Tigers' home base.

Teen stalwart for the Tigers

REDCLIFFE Tigers' Aaron Roche is passionate about Australian rules football.

The 19-year-old Mango Hill resident plays and coaches the Tigers' under-14 Gold team, and umpires, mentors umpires and works part-time at AFLQ, providing the AusKick program to schools.

Because of this, Roche, who is studying sports and exercise science at USC, has been nominated for a Local Sports Stars Service to Sport award.

This award will go to an individual club member or volunteer who shows the greatest level of passion, dedication and impact or contribution.

Mum Karen Roche said all of her son's spare time was taken up by training, coaching and mentoring.

"He is out every night of the week doing what he loves," Roche said.

"Aaron takes all this in his stride and does not expect any recognition or reward for his dedication."
